

The Gringo Gazette's New Boutique Hotel Is Open!

The people who have brought you the Gringo Gazette for 14 years invite you to move in with them.

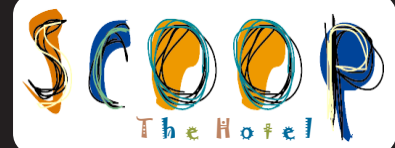

Scoop the hotel is on the top floor of the Gringo Gazette building which houses the newspaper offices and the new nightclub, also called Scoop

The 8 small rooms are brand new, spiffy clean, and all have private marble baths. Each is individually decorated and distinctive from the others, and they are located on the top floor of the Gringo Gazette building in downtown Cabo, where they perch on the top floor over the newspaper offices and Scoop the night club.

The cost is $60 and includes walled in gated parking, and a light breakfast. You will share a communal kitchen and TV lounge with other old Cabo hands & clients of Scoop the nightclub.

This is not a resort; there is no beach and no pool. Scoop is suggested for frequent Cabo visitors who think it would be cool to stay in a unique environment peopled with others who love Cabo.
